musings from Marietta

Welcome back.

June 21st marks the official first day of summer in the northern hemisphere – and also the longest day of the year! No matter where you are, it's also the half way point of the year.

As we enter June and the beginning of summer, there is clearly a lot going on in the world. Some in our community have some fears and concerns when it comes to their assets, investments, risk, etc. We have been talking, Zoom-ing, and meeting with our clients to review their life plans, investment allocations and risk.

If you haven't heard from your investment advisor and have any questions or topics you'd like to address, we'd be happy to schedule some time with you and take a look without pressure.

Respectfully,

Tripp Boyer, CFP® + David Ramey, CFP®, Partners at Boyer Ramey Wealth Management Group

P.S. If we can be a resource for you, your family, neighbors, colleagues, or friends, we would be happy to help in any way possible.

Working While Receiving Social Security Benefits

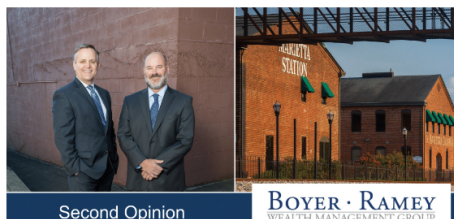

For people age 62 and older, retiring from the workforce often means claiming Social Security benefits. But what happens if you decide to go back to work? With the job market heating up, there are opportunities for people of all ages to return to the workforce. Or to look at it another way: What happens if you are working and want to claim Social Security benefits while staying on your job?

Ashby Family
Trip to Spain

Our Operations Manager, Sam Ashby, and his family recently took a 10-day trip to Barcelona and Sant Carles de la Rapita [2 hour trip from Barcelona]. They had an amazing time visiting family, who live in a cool neighborhood named Gracia.

The Ashbys walked about 10 miles each day during their trip. They visited many landmarks like: Park Guell, Sagrada Familia, Montjuic, Arc de Triomf, Barceloneta, La Rambla, Barcelona Cathedral, La Boqueria Market, and many different Placa's and restaurants. They loved the side streets filled with shops, bars, restaurants, and beautiful people. Sam claims that the street art was amazing! Here are some of Sam's beautiful photos.
